OUR EXLANGUARYT -- We present The Citizen to itereaders to-day with an unlargement of ever six columns. We have had this in contemplation for two months, but have been prevented from accomplishing it by the difficulties of getting paper of the proper size.

By this enlargement our expenses will be increased one third, and we hope our friends will see that The Citizen shall suffer no detriment by this increased outlay and labor. The paper will continue to be published semi-weekly, without any crease of subscription rates.

We have other good things in store for our subcribers, but just for the present we hope this will

NEW COMMISSION HOUSE .- We direct attention to the card of Messrs, J. R. Powell & Co., who have established themselves in New Orleans as Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants. Mr. Powell has resided in this county for a number of years, is a practical planter of long experience, and is well known as a business man of good capacity and

Mr. Stowart has been engaged in the cotton brokerage and commission business in New Oftenns for many years, is thoroughly posted with its whole routine, and cannot fail to give satisfaction to all who favor the house with their business.

We learn that Mr. Stewart will leave for New Orleans in a few days to enter upon his specialty of catton selling for the house, in which department he is particularly " at home."

CHARGE OF HOUSE. Messre Ordek & Landers have sold their stock of drugs, medicines, exerters. to Mesers. Mosby & Richards, and the latter gentlemen have resumed their former business at the same old stand. The bare announcement of the fact is sufficient to bring a swarm of customers to their counters. They have both stood the" tug of wor." have murched to the music of whistling balls and shricking bombs, and are not now upt to resist the advances of their friends. Let them have a liberal share of the public cast m.

Law Cann.-Gen. T. C. Tupper has given mother evidence of that asomen for which he is distinguished by once more displaying his card in the os of the venerable Citizen. This is not all has done. He has been to Washington and obed pardon for bimself and a number of friends. and whilst there formed a business connection with the distinguished law firm of Measrs, Hughes, Denver & Peck. This firm possesses a historic reputation, as being the first to volunteer as counsel for the persecuted Capt. This tirm will always be admired and respected by the Southern public. Read Gen. Tupperis card in another column.

Sannis and Hanness.-We believe we have heretofore omitted to call attention to the card of Mr. Wm. Besty, in our columns. Mr. B. will befound at the old stand of J. R.
